

ABOUT THE BOOK

The Sparrow family is ready for their trip south for the winter, but Papa's wing is hurt and he cannot make the trip. He asks the trees for help. One by one, the mighty, leafy trees of the forest say no! Will any of the trees help Papa Sparrow? What will happen to the selfish trees that turned him away? Discover why some trees lose their leaves in winter in this retelling of a folktale.

TITLES WITH NATIVE AMERICAN THEMES

FIRST FIRE: A
CHEROKEE FOLKTALE

How did we get fire? You'll find the answer to this questions in the retelling of a Cherokee pourquoi folktale. The earth was cold and dark but the animals could see fire coming from the tree on the island. They tried to fly or swim to the island to bring back the fire heat and light. What happened to some of the animals? Which animal brought it back and how?

HOW THE MOON
REGAINED HER SHAPE

Influenced by Native American folktales, this delightful story emphasizes dealing with adversity, building self-confidence, and understanding the phases of the moon. After the sun insults her, the moon becomes upset and disappears. It is with the help of her many friends that the moon finds strength to build her self-confidence and to regain her full size.
